Grow per-fect in your love and go be-ond the let-ter; grow per-fect in your love and turn the oth-er cheek; grow per-fect in your love and walk the ex-tra mile, and tru-ly, your joy will be com-plete. You have heard how it was said, 'eye for eye — and tooth for tooth', but I say un-to you, you must seek a deep-er truth. So tru - ly search your heart, should your neigh-bour stand a- part, and off - er first your hand, and then your gift.
