

Viva la Voz

1. Little by little the dream takes hold;
Spirit stirs a mem'ry bold.
Breaking open, turning 'round,
Cocoon unfolds, the dance begins.

Arms stretch out across the world
to gather hold and heal.
A heart opens to the myst'ry of love,
And enters the pain of the poor.

Refrain: Give voice to the silence,
 shatter the fear.
 Shout out with your lives
 the Lord is here.
 Proclaim in the darkness a vict'ry won:
 Your life a light to the world,
 a light to the world.

2. Life in God, sunk deep in truth,
well-spring of hope in a hopeless land.
Symbol of peace amidst despair
Psalm for God sung strong and loud.

Standing with those in chains today,
Bringing the Word to life,
Open to dreams that lead the way
to freedom for one and all.

3. Life poured out in crown of pain,
now safe in God's embrace.
The truth of love calls loud for peace,
Your song is sung, a dance set free

Again God's power over death is seen,
You gave in love, you dared the dream
And now a rainbow of grace and hope
Lays claim on our hearts of stone.